VENUE LOCATION:

FMV is located in an area entitled Alto da Ajuda, Monsanto. It is well served by a good public transportations network, especially buses. The recommended public transportations to arrive at FMV are: Metro to Marquês Pombal, where you can get on the Carris BUS number 723 \(Desterro – Algés\) going to Algés. There is a bus stop a few meters away from FMV's entrance.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION IN LISBON:

If you don't have a lot of luggage (in which case, a shuttle service or taxi would be the best option), the best way to reach the center of Lisbon from the airport is taking the AeroBus. Once in the city, the Metro is the most efficient way to get around, especially to go between downtown and uptown. For daytrips, consider the regular trains or the excellent express bus services.

There will be shuttles available between the recommended hotels and the congress venue. However, the joint fleet of the two public transportation companies Carris (buses and trams) and Metro (underground) covers the entire city with regular bus and tram routes as well as underground lines.

BUS and AEROBUS

CarrisTur's "Aerobus" & "AeroShuttle" services travel between Lisbon city centre and the airport. They run between 7:45AM and 8:45PM and the ticket is purchased on board.

The local Carris bus service also provides commuter buses between the airport and downtown (numbers 44, 45 and 83 cost 1,30 euro) and there are some destinations within the city that are best reached by bus.

METRO (Subway/Underground)

Lisbon's metro (subway or underground) is modern, clean, and efficient. It runs from 6:30AM to 1:00AM, and many of its stations are decorated with contemporary art, making it a tourist attraction in itself.

See a map of Lisbon's metro system to locate all of the stations (and www.metrolisboa.pt for additional information).

Some stops to note:

Cais do Sodré: For trains to Cascais and Estoril, trams for Belém, and ferries to the Monument to Christ.

Entrecampos: For trains to Sintra.

São Sebastião: For the Gulbenkian Museum.

Jardim Zoológico: For the Sete Rios bus terminal for express buses to all over Portugal.

Colégio Militar-Luz: For the Colombo shopping mall and the Benfica stadium.

Oriente: For national and international trains, city buses, and all the Parque das Nações attractions.

TAXIS

The city is served by 3,500 taxis, and a taxi ride from the airport to the city centre should cost between € 8 and € 15. The usual urban taxi fares are:

Day: 2.00 € + 0.40 €/km

Telephone booking: 0.80 €

Night, weekend and holidays: 2.50 € + 0.48 €/km

Taxis are widely used by the locals, and in comparison to the taxi fares in other countries, the Lisbon taxis are still to be considered a rather inexpensive means of transportation.

TRAMS

Riding tram 28 just for the experience is a must in Lisbon. Tram 15 is also the best way to reach Belem from downtown.

You can hop on 15 either at Figueira Square or Comércio Square (getting off by Jerónimos Monastery).

For tram 28, the best place to get on board is by Miradouro das Portas do Sol (we suggest ending your journey by Estrela Basilica).
